

Jaime Malet, 44 years. Married with two children.

Lawyer and businessman.

Mr. Malet holds a Degree in Law from the University of Barcelona, a Master in International Law and Economics (LLM) from the University of Houston a Master in Tax Law from ESADE and a Senior Management Program from IESE.

He started his career in Arthur Andersen.

At Malet & Asociados, a law firm he established ten years' ago, Mr. Malet has developed his professional activity as a lawyer specialized in M&A and as a business consultant for international projects, with an emphasis on energy, infrastructures and finance. Mr. Malet is a member of the Board of Directors of various companies and patron of several foundations.

Chairman of the Chamber of the Chamber of Commerce of the United States in Spain since July 2002, he was re elected by the Chamber's members for a third term in May 2008 The entity, founded in 1917, forms part of the US Chamber of Commerce in Washington, D.C. the largest business organization in the world with more than 3.7 million member corporations. The Chamber in Spain has around 600 member companies including nearly all the large US companies in Spain and many of the Spanish companies with presence in the US, including 20 of the IBEX 35 companies.

Under the Presidency of Mr. Malet, the Chamber has become an active and influential business association, well considered both politically and business-wise in Spain and the United States. The main objectives of the Chamber are to work for the internationalization and liberalization of the Spanish economy, the attraction and retention of US investment and the defence of their interests, the support of Spanish investment in the US and the promotion of many public diplomatic aspects for a better understanding between the administrations of both countries.

Mr. Malet is a renowned macro economics' and international politics' analyst, participating frequently in conferences as a panellist and writing articles for forums and the national and international media.