CEO Breakfast:

Juan Orti, President and CEO of American Express in Spain

11 July 2017

On July 11th, the American Chamber of Commerce in Spain (AmChamSpain) and its Women in Leadership Committee held a CEO Breakfast with Juan Orti, President and CEO of American Express in Spain and member of the AmChamSpain Board of Directors.

During the meeting, Mr. Orti discussed the career development programs American Express has in place, and emphasized those aimed at diversity and gender inclusion. American Express was awarded third place on the Great Place to Work 2017 ranking list. The company motivates its employees through training initiatives, coaching, flexibility and mentoring that serve to enhance female talent within the organization. As a result of these policies, 60% of its workforce and 40% of its steering committee in Spain are made up of women.

Additionally, Luis Alonso, Director of Human Resources at American Express Spain and Julia López, Vice President and General Manager of Merchant Services, participated in the discussion and shared their vision on developing youth and female talent.

The breakfast was attended by approximately 20 female managers from different sectors, who contributed to the conversation by sharing their knowledge and experiences related to diversity in their professional careers.
